

The ability to get instant traffic and weather from satellite radio is of great benefit. I strongly request that you not regulate this feature away from XM radio. I can get the information I need much quicker and faster from this source than from any other. This is a service that I do currently pay for and I cannot see how or why you should regulate this in any way.